

Online safety websites for parents.

www.net-aware.org.uk - A website which gives information about apps and games by sharing children's opinions, explaining how they work and showing the risks.

www.commonsemmedia.org - This website shares information and opinions about games, apps, websites, movies etc. It gives the official information from companies, parent's opinions and children's views about each item.

www.thinkuknow.co.uk - This website has information about internet safety for both children and parents; including what to do if you have a concern.

www.childnet-int.org - A website which contains advice about how to have start a conversation with children about internet safety and what to do if you have a concern.

www.ceop.gov.uk - This website is linked to the CEOP button (shown below) and is a website which enable you to make a report about an incident or concern. (Run by National Crime Agency)

