

Dear Amazing Jade Class,

Hope you are all well and staying out of trouble. I have had the lovely opportunity to talk to a few of you over the phone recently and I have been blown away by the fantastic things you have been up to from creating ice cream trucks out of cardboard to learning Italian. If you have not received a phone call yet do not worry I am sure you will be getting one soon from either me, Mrs Bolton or Mrs Hopper soon and we cannot wait to hear about everything you have been up to!

It has also been delightful to hear that a lot of you are so determined to keep learning and have been attempting different activities whether this is work set by us at school or tasks you have found on websites. I am so so soooo proud of each and every one of you. The TT Rockstars and Spelling Shed leader board is below as always and again a massive well done to everyone on it!

I have to admit that some of the nicer weather we have been having has made me very lazy recently (lazier than usual) and I haven't been exercising as much as before. I have however been reading lots of books in the sunshine and I know many of you have been keeping yourself busy by reading lots as well. I have also been on a few walks in my local area, seen some very cute goslings, had a picnic to celebrate VE Day and the ice cream man even came round! All very exciting. Once again, please keep me updated with what you are up to on Twitter, I have a browse through every day and always smile when something is posted by one of you such as Evie's beautiful painting and Fraser's wonderful Pigeon Impossible comic strip.

I miss you all and hope to see you all again soon!

Miss Chapman
