What was discussed?

- Outdoor Classroom Day - thank you for so many classes for taking part in spite of the weather last week. Children shared what they did with their class.
- Eco Day 11th June – dress up for Loose Amenities Association. Confirmed prizes and house points for winning eco themed costumes.
- Eco display board to show case our eco work by Mrs Plank – eco councillors to create some artwork for this by re-using old plastic bottle tops. Discussed ideas for this.
- Thanks to year 3 for their traffic warden duties! Especially for our traffic report by Amelia. Next time it will be year 5's turn.
- Shelley the eco mascot – Kelsie and then Alfie to take her for a week each – to do some eco jobs at home and out and about.
- Environmental tips – Max in Tanzanite to write out next 'Environmental Tips' article for the newsletter. Matilda to pass hers to me.
- Discussed School Travel Plan and thoughts re new ideas to encourage children to walk to school – like the old WOW system. Ideas suggested like:
points board in class for each day a pupil walks, scoots or cycles to school. Or tally chart for the class. Or top of the ladder or house points rewarded for walks to school.
- Shared ideas from eco boxes.
- New eco meeting day!!

Next steps:

- Send out message/reminder for eco day. 4 themes for ECO dress up day: recycling, nature, endangered species or dressed all in green. Small prize for best costume in each class plus 10, 7 and 5 house points for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place.
- Ask your class to collect plastic bottle tops - any colour or size and bring in to school asap.
- After half term year 5 are on traffic warden duties.
- Kelsie in year 1 to take Shelley for eco adventures next week.
- Mrs Way to pass Matilda's environmental tips for the newsletter.
- Talk to your class regarding whether a new motivational walk to school scheme would be welcomed (or not) to reduce the number of cars at drop off and pick up times and gather ideas/thoughts for our next meeting.
- Eco meeting day will now be on Fridays during Golden Time from 2:45 – 3:15.
- Bring eco boxes to our next meeting.

When and where is the next meeting?
Friday 18th June at 2:45pm in the Woodland Walk.
