

Gangs Sexual Violence & Abuse Support

- Anyone can be at risk from gang activities
- Some young people are at greater risk
- Gangs can have a devastating effect on families
- You may feel unable to protect yourself
- Your home may even be used by gangs

We are not here to judge you but to support you from further harm and help you take back control.

You do not need to have reported to police to access our support. All support provided is on a one-to-one basis and tailored to your requirements.

We will help you to examine ALL the options open to you, even if you do not wish to support a prosecution.

Family Matters is a charity and our services are free & confidential.
